fine fresh lot of 150 summer
hats for young women—
special at $5.00

Values $6 to $12.50—Go On Sale Today

Four large cases of hats were opened and marked Thursday, all of which will be on sale today in the Millinery Store on First Floor.

Please read carefully the details following and

PLEASE REMEMBER THIS

That because comparison prices are so often fictitious and misleading and because of the large difference between "worth" and "marked" prices, now current in stores you hesitate in stating the real value of these hats, however, when you see them (in the windows) and try them on in the store you'll recognize

WE'RE SAVING YOU FULLY AN AVERAGE OF ONE-THIRD

This is the surprise and advantage we offer today in a large variety—150 hats, no two alike—new exquisite midsummer hats mostly white, black, black and white and burnt.

The tremble and trouble of some makers of women's things are putting into our hands at this time amazing bargains because of our certain powers of turning goods into cash. This is one of them. One of our regular hatters sent these hats to their salesman at Pittsburg to sell but he found business there at a standstill, he immediately communicated with us, made the price most tempting indeed, results are hats are here and a choice collection they are too.

Social and Personal

Family Dinner.
A family dinner party was given Thursday by Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Kersting in their home on West Pike street complimentary to Miss Sarah Iona Kersting who was a graduate last evening at the high school commencement exercises in the auditorium of the Masonic Temple.

Covers were laid for twenty guests. Among the out of town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. John Spence and daughter of Evans City, Pa., Joseph Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stoneking, Sistersville; Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Kline, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sharpe, Warren, Arkansas; Mr. and Mrs. Clair Kline and daughter and Mammal Merket of Massillon, O.

Miss Kersting was presented with many beautiful graduation gifts and one of the pleasing features of the affair was the presence of her great grandfather, Josiah Dawson, aged 79 years, representing the oldest guest of the family gathering and little months as the youngest relative.

Informal Dance.
An informal dance will be given by the members of the Trojan Club, Tuesday evening, June 2, in Hoffman Hall for which invitations have been issued. The committee in charge consists of Messrs. C. H. Fisher, K. M. Kyle, and P. H. Bayne. A well selected program of dance music will be played by the Cadenza orchestra.

Several Picnics.
Saturday being Decoration Day several picnic parties have been arranged to take place at the Country Club by some of the members.

To Give Dance.
An informal dance will be given this evening in Hoffman Hall from 9 to 12 o'clock under the auspices of the Cadenza orchestra.

To Give Recital.
At 8 o'clock Monday evening in the auditorium of the Elks home the music pupils of Miss Louise Kean will give a recital program.

For Mrs. Fischer.
In honor of Mrs. J. Arter Fischer of Pittsburg, Mrs. Lucius Hoge will entertain at cards and a luncheon tomorrow morning.

WESTON

WESTON, May 29.—The postoffice department has instructed the local postmaster to discontinue the window service at night at this place. That means also that the evening collection of mails will be discontinued, and that persons now receiving mail at the carriers' window will be obliged to rent boxes or wait till the morning delivery for their mail from the evening trains or car.

The carnival which has been exhibiting here during the week complains of poor patronage and there was talk of quitting the town, but it later decided to remain all week in the hope that patronage would increase toward the last days.

By telephone there came word last night that Buckhannon got an hour's steady rain just after supper, when Weston remained as dry as a chip. But a little sprinkle which was barely perceptible fell upon Weston at any time yesterday.

Luther L. Casto, representing the A. P. Russell Company, of Buckhannon, has been here buying wool. He had come from West Milford, Good Hope and Big Isaac, by way of Freemansburg, to this city. His company is offering twenty-one cents for wool at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Swisher and children and Mrs. John Swisher and children, of Gilmer county, are here for a visit with relatives. They formerly lived here. Mr. Swisher has sold his farm near Glenville and bought the Israel Cookman farm at Auburn. After a brief visit among relatives here he will move to Auburn.

Miss Mary Conrad, postmistress at Roanoke, was in the city recently. Perry Smith, a well known merchant of Georgetown, has been in town on business.

The store formerly owned by the Clem Brothers at Haleville has been sold at public auction to Ross King's sons.

Auctioneer Charles W. Talbott has been at Orlando officiating at the sale of some live stock.

Carl and Walter P. Curtis have been here on their way from Akron, O., where they had been at work, to their former home at Vadis, this county.

Mrs. John P. Quinn, of Alum Bridge, visited relatives in the city this week. Judge Homer B. Woods, of Harrisville, was here this week on his way home from Glenville, where he had been holding a term of court.

French Downs, of Mannington, was in the city recently. He went to Webster Springs to get the benefit of the water there.

John J. Denham, a clerk in the post-office at Clarksburg, was in the city on business recently.

Homer L. Craddock and C. C. Morris, of Glenville, have been here several days on business.

M. M. Ervin, the veteran carpenter, has been doing some repair work on the historic old Bailey house.

Dr. D. D. Chapman, of Vadis, has been in town on business, as has been Dr. A. B. Collins, of Berlin.

A. W. Priest, of Churchville, has been at Buckhannon.

FISHER TO SIT.

Judge Jake Fisher, of Sutton, will sit in a circuit court case here next Tuesday, in which Judge Haymond Maxwell is ineligible to sit.

CRIMINAL COURT.

The next term of the criminal court will begin Tuesday, when the grand jury will be organized and instructed. There are many summonses out but not as many as usual.
